Sir,

I have the honor to state that Mahadali Khan, retired Deputy Amildar and one of the Stipendiaries of Sanjapur Jahagir allowance, Anekal Taluk, who was residing at 372, Singer Doraga street, Mysore, is reported to have died on the 1st April 1907, leaving behind him only two sons named Nizamali Khan and Mahammad Khan, who now claim the Jahagir allowance of Rs 3-8-4, which their father was receiving from the Government. These two sons state that there are no other claimants to the heirship and that their father had no daughters and request that the pension may be ordered to be made in their names. The Amildar of Anekal Taluk recommends that the stipend may be divided between the two sons and separate stipends issued to them.

2. Under these circumstances, the pension may be kindly ordered to be divided between the two sons and stipends issued in their respective names.

3. The certificate of death signed by the Health officer, Bangalore City and the stipendiary order No 19, dated 28th May 1902, together with the entire vernacular records are herewith enclosed for reference and kind return when done with.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
your most obedient Servant,
